Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God.
 Romans 10:17

Lead, light divine, amid th'encircling gloom —                  Lead Thou me on;                  The night is dark and I am far from home,                  Lead Thou me on.                  Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see                  The distant path; one step's enough for me. I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou                  Shouldst lead me on;                  I loved to choose and seek my path; but now,                  Lead Thou me on.                  I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears                  Pride ruled my will: remember not past years. Thus far Thy power hath blessed me, and it still                  Will lead me on,                  O'er moor and fen, through tangled brakes, on till                  The night is gone;                  And with the morn the everlasting joy,                  Which led me on, is mine without alloy.                  John Henry Newman, 1801-1890	Looking Ahead February                  12th, 19th, 26th                  Paul Rabideau II Peter 1:2-3 Grace and peace                  be multiplied to                  you in the                  knowledge of                  God and of Jesus                  our Lord, <sup>3</sup> as                  His divine power                  has given to us all                  things that                  pertain to life and                  godliness, through                  the knowledge of                  Him who called                  us by glory and                  virtue, <sup>4</sup> by which                  have been given                  to us exceedingly                  great and precious                  promises, that                  through these you                  may be partakers                  of the divine                  nature, having                  escaped                  the corruption that                  is in the world                  through lust.
A Christian has noble aims which distinguish                  him from the bulk of mankind. His leading                  principles, motives, and desires are all                  supernatural and divine. Could he do as he                  desires there is not an angel before the Eternal                  Throne, that would excel him in holiness, love,                  and obedience! He would tread in the very                  footsteps of his Savior, fill up every moment                  of time in His service, and employ                  every breath in His praise!
