Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God.
 Romans 10:17

Behold, what wondrous love and grace! When we were wretched and undone, To save a ruined, helpless race, The Father gave His only Son! Of twice ten thousand gifts divine, No gift like this could ever shine. O gift of love unspeakable! O gift of mercy all divine! We once were slaves of death and hell, But in Christ's image we shall shine: For every gift a song we raise, But this demands eternal praise. Praises shall employ these tongues of ours, Till we with all the saints above, Extol His name with nobler powers, And see the ocean of His love: Then, while we look and wondering gaze, We'll fill the heavens with endless praise. Moreover, the topic of election is nearly always introduced for a practical purpose, in order to foster assurance (not presumption), holiness (not moral apathy) humility (not pride) and witness (not lazy selfishness)... Similarly in 1 Thessalonians 1:4 Paul unites the love of God and the election of God. That is, He chose us because He loves us, and He love us because He loves us. He does not love us because we are lovable, but only because He is love. And with that mystery we must be content. John Stott	I Thessalonians 1:1-4 To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ² We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers, ³ remembering without ceasing your work of faith, labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the sight of our God and Father, ⁴ knowing, beloved brethren, your election by God.
