Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God.
 Romans 10:17

Our tongues shall spread the Saviour's fame, Whose grace we daily prove,
 For since our souls have known His name,
 His banner has been — Love.

When walking in the paths of sin,
 We far from Him did rove, By sweet constraint He drew us in,
 And waved His banner — Love.

He spread the banquet, made us eat, Bid all our fears remove;
 Yea, o'er our guilty, rebel heads
 He placed His banner — Love.

When weary of His rich repast, We've sought, alas! to rove,
 He has recalled His faithless guest,
 And shewn His banner — Love.

In every conflict we sustain,
 Our enemies shall prove,
 Through Him the victory we obtain, Beneath His banner — Love.

And when He calls us home at length,
 To feast with Him above,
 Through eternity we'll sing
 His never-changing love.

James 5:1-3

Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming upon you! ²Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. ³Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have heaped up treasure in the last days.

 Hymn Sing

You may have wealth.
 It cannot profit long.
 You may have health.
 Decay will cause its flower to fade. You may have strength. It soon will totter to the grave. You may have honors. A breath will blast them. You may have flattering friends.

They are but as a summer brook. These boasted joys often now cover an aching heart, but they never gave a grain of solid peace; they never healed a wounded conscience; they never won approving looks from God; they never crushed the sting of sin.
