Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God.
 Romans 10:17

Brightness of the eternal glory,                  Shall Thy praise unuttered lie?                  Who would hush the heaven-sent story                  Of the Lamb who came to die? Came from Godhead's fullest glory                  Down to Calvary's depth of woe,                  Now on high, we bow before Thee;                  Streams of praises ceaseless flow! Sing His blest triumphant rising;                  Sing Him on the Father's throne;                  Sing — till heaven and earth surprising,                  Reigns the Nazarene alone. A God-centered worldview brings every issue, question, and cultural concern into submission to all that the Bible reveals, and frames all understanding within the ultimate purpose of bringing greater glory to God. This task of bringing every thought captive to Christ requires more than haphazard Christian thinking, and is to be understood as the task of the church and not merely the concern of individual believers. The recovery of the Christian mind and the development of a comprehensive Christian worldview will require the deepest theological reflection, the most consecrated application of scholarship, the most sensitive commitment to compassion, and the courage to face all questions without fear. Albert Mohler	II Corinthians 10:4-6 For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, <sup>5</sup> casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, <sup>6</sup> and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled.
