 Romans 10:17

O God whose wondrous name is Love, Whose grace has fashioned us anew, Before Thy face now stands the Lamb, Whom sinful man once pierced and slew; For us Thy Son Thou didst not spare, For us canst Thou cease to care? O heavenly Father, grant us all The new-born babe's simplicity! From us the doubtful mind remove; We boast a God that cannot lie! Taught to repose, through love divine, On truth itself, on truth divine. Thou art the Potter, we the clay, Thy will be ours, Thy truth our light, Thy love the fountain of our joy, Thine arm a safeguard day and night, Till Thou shalt wipe all tears away, And bring forth everlasting day. Robert Cleaver Chapman (1803-1902)	Looking Ahead June 4th, 11th Mark Swaim June 8th Chapel Picnic June 9th Berkeley Heights Block Party July 8th – 12th Vacation Bible School <hr/> “For the love of Christ controls us.” The motivation here in 2 Corinthians 5:14 to live for Christ is clearly the love of Christ. With every thought, decision or action we make, we remember the One who loves us dearly. And that love He has for us is the motivation for us to love Him in return. And why do we love Him? 1 John 4:19, “We love, because He first loved us.” And how do we love Him in return? John 14:15, “If you love Me, you will keep My commandments.” It becomes the law of love. We find ourselves serving the Lord out of devotion and not out of duty. Randy Smith
Romans 8:37-39 Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. ³⁸For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, ³⁹nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
