Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God.
 Romans 10:17

Broken heart! The fountain's open,                  Christ hath died upon the tree,                  All the powers of hell are shaken,                  Grace flows down from God to thee. God Himself, the Source, the Fountain,                  Christ the Way the waters flow,                  By the Spirit manifested,                  He the finished work hath done. By one righteousness completed,                  Adam's life receives its doom;                  Jesus Christ, in glory seated,                  Everlasting life hath won. Broken heart! The river's flowing,                  Haste! Delay not! Yet there's room;                  Hear the word of God beseeching,                  "Whosoever thirst may come."                  A.P. For just as you presented your members as slaves of uncleanness, and of lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves of righteousness for holiness. <sup>20</sup> For when you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. <sup>21</sup> What fruit did you have then in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. <sup>22</sup> But now having been set free from sin, and having become slaves of God, you have your fruit to holiness, and the end, everlasting life. <sup>23</sup> For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.
“People do not drift toward holiness. Apart from grace-driven effort, people do not gravitate toward godliness, prayer, obedience to Scripture, faith, and delight in the Lord. We drift toward compromise and call it tolerance; we drift toward disobedience and call it freedom; we drift toward superstition and call it faith. We cherish the indiscipline of lost self-control and call it relaxation; we slouch toward prayerlessness and delude ourselves into thinking we have escaped legalism; we slide toward godlessness and convince ourselves we have been liberated.”                  D. A. Carson
