Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God.
 Romans 10:17

"A little while" — the Lord shall come, And we shall wander here no more; He'll take us to His Father's home, Where He for us is gone before — To dwell with Him, to see His face, And sing the glories of His grace. "A little while" — He'll come again, Let us the precious hours redeem; Our only grief to give Him pain, Our joy to serve and follow Him. Watching and ready may we be, As those that wait their Lord to see. "A little while" — 'twill soon be past, Why should we shun the promised cross? O let us in His footsteps haste, Counting for Him all else but loss! For how will recompense His smile, The sufferings of this little "while." "A little while" — come, Saviour, come! For Thee Thy bride has tarried long: Take Thy poor waiting pilgrims home, To sing the new eternal song, To see Thy glory, and to be, In everything conformed to Thee! James G. The very heart of our faith is that He did this by obeying the law of God, dying for the sins of His people, rising victorious over death, ascending to God's right hand with all His enemies under his feet. The second coming of Christ is the completion of His saving work. If you take it away, the whole fabric of His saving work unravels. John Piper
Malachi 3:1-2a “Behold, I send My messenger, and he will prepare the way before Me. And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple, even the Messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight. Behold, He is coming,” says the Lord of hosts. ²“But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner’s fire and like launderers’ soap.
