Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God.
Romans 10:17

Our God is light: and though we go
Across a trackless wild,
Our Jesus footsteps ever shew
The path for every child.

At every step afresh we prove
How sure our heavenly Guide;
The faithful and forbearing love
That never turns aside.

Thou weariest not, most gracious Lord,
Though we may weary grow;
In season the sustaining word
Thou giv'st our hearts to know.

Death's bitter waters met our thirst,
Thy cross has made them sweet;
Then on our gladdened vision burst
God's shady, cool retreat.

Through scenes of strife, by graves of lust,
Our desert path has been;
But here, O Lord, we've learned to trust
And love Thee though unseen.

The manna and the springing well
Suffice for every need;
And Eschol's grapes the story tell
Of where Thy path doth lead.

"A cell in a prison, where one waits with HOPE … where one is completely dependent on the fact that the door to freedom must be opened from the outside, this is a good picture of Advent."

Dietrich Bonhoeffer
(1906 – 1945)

Romans 5:1-5 Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, 2 through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. 3 And not only that, but we also glory in tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance; 4 and perseverance, character; and character, hope. 5 Now hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

Christ's love towards us, and not our love towards Christ, is the true ground of expectation, and true foundation of hope.
