The One who will never leave us nor forsake us (Hebrews 13:5) is also quite capable of saying to us, "We need to have a serious talk. It's time for you to make some changes. If you will listen and follow, I will continue to use you. If you turn away, I will set you aside"... If your theology includes the message of justification by faith alone, I hope you will never back off from that. I hope you will keep that message central. But I also hope your theology includes another message – the grace of obedience fully pleasing to the Father. Ray Orland

Hebrews 13:7-12 Remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. 8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. 9 Do not be led away by diverse and strange teachings, for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods, which have not benefited those devoted to them. 10 We have an altar from which those who serve the tent have no right to eat. 11 For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the holy places by the high priest as a sacrifice for sin are burned outside the camp. 12 So Jesus also suffered outside the gate in order to sanctify the people through his own blood.

Chapter 13 is a very practical text, for here the author spells out for his readers what "running with endurance the race set before us" should look like.
