Isaiah 40:3-6

The voice of one crying in the wilderness: "Prepare the way of the Lord; make straight in the desert a highway for our God. 4 Every valley shall be exalted and every mountain and hill brought low; the crooked places shall be made straight and the rough places smooth; 5 the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken."

John the Baptist symbolizes the breaking of the centuries of prophetic silence recognized by the Jews themselves (First Maccabees 4:46, 9:27, 14:41). Here then is a new thing: a voice from ADONAI out of the silence, confirmed by its power and message, as well as by its unusual messenger. Prophecy appeared again in the midst of Isra'el, the people of God.

Immanuel, God with us in our nature, in our sorrow, in our lifework, in our punishment, in our grave, and now with us, or rather we with Him, in resurrection, ascension, triumph, and Second Advent splendor.
